SONG OF THE WEEK

Do you know what you want?
You don't know for sure
You don't feel right
You can't find the cure
And you're getting less than what you're looking for

Good you don't have money
Or a family car
And you're tired of wishing
On a fallen star
You gotta put your faith in a loud guitar

Chorus
God gave rock 'n' roll to you
Save rock 'n' roll to you
Save rock 'n' roll to everyone
God gave rock 'n' roll to you
Save rock 'n' roll to you

Put it in the soul of everyone
If the world be a singer
Or play guitar
Then you gotta swear
Or you won't get that far
We won't be the same 'til we're 5
You can take a stand
Or you can compromise
You can work really hard
Or just fantasize
But you don't know how it'll all be

Repeat chorus
God gave rock 'n' roll to you

Put it in the soul of everyone
Repeat chorus
God gave rock 'n' roll to you

GOD GAVE ROCK 'N' ROLL TO YOU II KISS

BOGUS MUSIC

■ These awesome dudes Bill & Ted have been blitzing our cinema screens with their antics in Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey recently and if you've been to see the film you'll know it's got a pretty hot soundtrack with totally excellent tracks on it by up-and-coming bands like Faith No More, Megadeth and Winger. They're tracks that the winners of Bill & Ted's Battle Of The Bands would be proud of. We've got 12 copies of the album to give away free from EastWest Records as well as 10 excellent 12-inch picture discs of the hit single from the film God Gave Rock 'N' Roll To You II by Kix. If you fancy winning a set, and we're not kidding you, man, then follow the Win It! panel on page 7 and mark your entry Bill & Ted Freebie

ALEX WINTER

Bill & Ted's
Bogus
Journey

Bill's not Bogus

One thing about Alex Winter...he doesn't let the grass grow under his feet. As Bill in Bill And Ted's Bogus Journey he visits visions of heaven, hell and beyond. And he wasn't prepared to stop at playing just Bill, either...

◆ In the movie, Alex plays three characters. He's the one in the title who's not Ted, of course, but he also chips in with roles as Evil Bill and Granny Preslon.

◆ How does he sum up the popularity of the two films? "Bill and Ted are a modern version of Laurel and Hardy," he says. "We've all had friends we can simply look at and without saying anything, know exactly what they're thinking. Bill and Ted have that kind of relationship."

◆ Alex has built up a great friendship with Keanu Reeves, who plays Ted: "We started up a conversation with each other early on in the auditions. Now we use Bill And Ted-speak practically all the time!"

◆ Although they're a lovable duo, Alex reckons Bill and Ted are a frustrated couple of dudes at the start of the latest movie. "They want to let loose with this rock band and yet it's something they can't get together. They were given this incredible legacy at the end of the first film, and they were going to do these amazing things and yet none of it has happened yet."

◆ Alex has done some pretty amazing things himself in his time. He set up his own production company a few years ago so that he could make his own films, some of which have been shown in America. He's also acted on New York's famous Broadway and produced videos for rock acts The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Ice Cube and Human Radio.

◆ He fancies himself as a bit of a rock star, too. He plays bass in a group called This Other Band, who are based in Los Angeles. "It's all go right now!" he says.

Keanu (Ted) Reeves will be here in next week's Look In!

A RIGHT OLD TED?

If there's a new movie being released, there's a good chance that Keanu Reeves has something to do with it. He's popping up all over the place at the moment and it's all due to his success in the Bill & Ted movies...

► FACT PACK ◀

☛ Keanu was born on 2 September 1964, and he's half-Hawaiian, half-English and a Canadian citizen. "Most people think I'm American but they couldn't be more wrong," he says.

☛ He didn't always want to be an actor: "When I was younger I wanted to be a racing driver or a nuclear physicist. But that all changed when I ended up at a performing arts school in Toronto. Mind you, I was thrown out of there because I didn't pay enough attention."

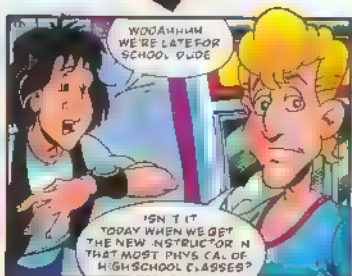

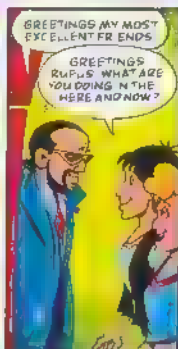

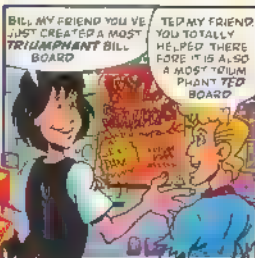

☛ Before getting back into acting and landing his first part in a film called River's Edge, Keanu worked at some weird and wonderful jobs, including pasta-maker in a restaurant, and skate-sharpener in an ice-rink.

☛ His first name is Hawaiian and when translated it means Cool Breeze Over The Mountains. He says: "I have a Chinese Hawaiian dad and an English mum and they were both hippies in the 60s. They cavorted around the world, including Beirut, which is where I was born. Six months later we went to Australia for a year, which is where my sister was born. We moved to New York, and then to Toronto when I was five, where we became Canadian citizens. I grew up there mostly."

☛ He's worried that he might continue getting cast as a dopey sort like Ted. "My agent's worried that everyone might think of me as being Ted and that I might not be considered for more serious parts. I hope it doesn't happen, but it might. I could be Ted forever!"

☛ He shouldn't be too worried. Apart from Ted, he's just been a scary tough guy in Point Break with Patrick Swayze, and he's also filming a none-too-dopey part in a new film version of Dracula, which also stars girl-friend actress Winona Ryder.
